SCAVENGER HUNTS

RATES IN CANADIAN DOLLARS VALID UNTIL DECEMBER 31, 2026

CREATIVE SCAVENGER HUNT

Divided into teams of 4 or 5, participants have to complete creative challenges in a set amount of time in order to achieve a common goal (optional, and predetermined with the employer). For example, you could decide to offer a gift to each employee, or make a donation to a charity based on the level of team participation.

This activity focuses on collaboration, communication, group cohesion, and the importance of support across teams. Through challenges that will call on their artistic side, their ingenuity and resourcefulness, participants will need to adopt different creative attitudes, and explore the limits of their comfort zone. This will allow them to reach the team objective all while exceeding their own expectations!

The Creative Scavenger Hunt takes place in Old Montréal. Upon request, It can also take place in another Montréal neighborhood, or in an indoor setting.

$70/pers.
Taxes included
Min. 20 participants*

Duration: 3 hours.

Availability
April to October.

Included:

- Staff from Guidatour to supervise the activity.
- One alcoholic beverage for each participant.
- The required material for the challenges.

HISTORICAL SCAVENGER HUNT

An ideal activity for special outings, taking a break during a training day, or simply enjoying the outdoors with friends or colleagues while learning about the history of the city's origins and its buildings.

Following a brief introduction by our hosts, in teams of 4 to 5 participants, you will stroll through the streets of Old Montréal.

Starting from Square Victoria, you'll engage in a quiz-style game to earn the maximum points within a limited time and take on fun challenges.

You will conclude your journey in a friendly atmosphere by enjoying a drink at a pleasant location where our staff will announce the winning team and award prizes.
